

Free Syrian Army

Southern Front

Forces of the martyr Ahmed Al-Abdo

Condemnation statement

In the name of God, the most gracious, the most merciful

The Martyr Ahmed Al-Abd Al-Abdo Forces of the Southern Front of the Free Syrian Army condemn in the strongest terms the terrorist attacks that took place on Monday targeting the holy sites and the Prophet's Mosque in the sisterly Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, after the hand of treachery reached the visitors of the city of the Messenger of God, may God bless him and grant him peace, while performing worship and religious rituals in the last days of the holy month of Ramadan and with the approach of the happy Eid al-Adha.

We declare our full solidarity with the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, its leadership and people, in confronting all forms of criminal terrorism.

Which you are exposed to, and we will always stand by our brothers in the Kingdom with all our energy in their war against the terrorism that they are exposed to and whose woes the Syrian people have been suffering for five years, and we have no doubt that it stems from the same source. Finally, we offer our deepest condolences to the families of the victims who died in this terrorist act, and we ask God

May God Almighty grant the wounded a speedy recovery.

Media office

Forces of the martyr Ahmed Al-Abdo

2016/7/5 : Released on